EVERYTHING A SUCCESSFUL TEAM NEEDS

GIANT FOOSEBALL

Giant Foosball comprises of an inflatable perimeter wall and goal posts. Various games are available which are suitable for both big and small groups. Players have to be physically able, however, fitness is not a pre-requisite. The different games all provide great fun for both the players and spectators while they build relationships and learn to interact with each other as a team.

Giant Foosball: Players are attached to each other with harnesses and are only able to move from side to side. The teams have to overcome their restrictions by synchronising their movements. Teamwork is essential to get to the ball and to pass the ball between team members while trying to score a goal.

Giant Marbles: The Goon is placed in the middle of the field and the team's objective is to knock the Goon to the opposition's side while standing outside of the field using only the balls provided. Patience, persistence, strategy and adaptability are essential.
