

KICKDARTS

One of the most popular new team building activities! Kick Dart participants will need to get their game faces on and kick a Velcro soccer ball against an inflatable dart board.

Players will learn how to focus their eye on the goal while cheering on their team mates. Perfect combination of soccer and playing darts! The huge inflatable target is very impressive and players will have to try to hit the highest number.

Think of this activity as playing darts using nothing but your feet. Great fun and non-stop laughter guaranteed!
